

2020 MLK DAY HUMAN RELATIONS AWARD NOMINATION FORM

The Fargo Human Relations Commission is now seeking nominations for Fargo residents (youth and adults) and businesses/organizations that have made outstanding contributions to the City of Fargo in the area of human rights. In particular, the Human Relations Commission wants to recognize those who promote respect and acceptance for diversity and help to eliminate discrimination and who do work that embodies Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.'s legacy.

The deadline for returning nomination forms is November 13, 2019. Awardees will be formally recognized at the Martin Luther King Jr. Celebration at the Fargo Theatre on January 20, 2020. For a list of previous award recipients, visit FargoND.gov/HumanRelationsCommission.

To nominate an individual or organization for the MLK Day Human Relations Award, complete the information below and return this form by email to Planning@FargoND.gov, or by mail to the Human Relations Commission, City of Fargo Planning Department, 225 4th St. N, Fargo, ND 58102. For more information, contact the Commission at 701.241.1474.

Date: _____ Category: Youth (college or under) Adult Business/Organization

Name of Nominee: _____

Nominee Address: _____

If individual, occupation/school/association: _____

If business/organization, name of Key Representative: _____

Nominee Phone #: _____ Nominee E-mail: _____

Person/Group Making Nomination: _____

Your Relationship to Nominee: _____ Your Phone #: _____

In 500 words or less, please provide a description of who you are nominating and why you feel this nominee should receive the MLK Day Human Relations Award. NOTE: Should the nominee be chosen, the information provided will be used for the award presentation and publicity. Therefore, it is important that all information be correct, complete and specific. Current members of the Fargo Human Relations Commission cannot be nominated for an award.