MEMORANDUM

TO: Fargo Native American Commission

FROM: Catlyn Christie, Assistant Planner

DATE: February 25, 2022

RE: Staff Report

This agenda item is an effort to summarize and memorialize issues, concerns, or staff action related to the work of the Native American Commission since the last meeting. During the meeting, the Chair may open for discussion or questions concerning these items.

1. COVID-19 Vaccinations and Testing

FCPH continues to provide COVID-19 vaccine by appointment only in the Immunization Clinic. The clinic operates Monday from 8:00 a.m. – 6:00 p.m., and Wednesday and Thursday from 8:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m. and is located in the main FCPH building at 1240 25th Street South in Fargo. Appointments are required and can be made by calling 701.241.1383. Visit our COVID-19 Vaccine page for more information.

For testing and screening, PCR testing and BinaxNOW Rapid Screening are provided Monday – Friday from 8 am to 5 pm at 3051 25th Street South, Fargo, Suite K. Pre-registration is required and can be completed at <https://testreg.nd.gov/>. There is no cost for testing and screening.

2. Rental Assistance & Eviction Prevention

Anyone struggling to pay rent is encouraged to call 2-1-1 (FirstLink) to be connected to rental assistance and other eviction prevention programs currently available. They will direct individuals to the best-fit assistance, such as the North Dakota Rent Help program, <https://www.nd.gov/dhs/info/covid-19/rent-help.html>, or other assistance available through SENDCAA and Presentation Partners in Housing.

The High Plains Fair Housing Center also continues to offer an eviction prevention program to income-qualified residents living in Fargo (as well as Grand Forks and Bismarck). If eligible, potential eviction prevention services offered include referral to and help applying for rental assistance programs and/or connection to a lawyer at no cost for assistance in eviction court. Call the intake line at 701-203-1077 or toll free at 1-866-380-2738.

3. HUD Programs

Staff is currently in the process of analyzing needs and preparing plans for both the HOME-ARP homeless assistance funds and the regular 2022 allocation of HUD funds.

Timeline for 2022 & HOME-ARP Funds

March	Solicitation for proposals for the HOME-ARP funds
April	Draft plan expected for both 2022 & HOME ARP funds
May	30-day comment period and public hearing held at City Commission
June – August	Begin projects associated with these funds

4. Planning Department Updates

Planning Department staff are looking forward to a busy year ahead. Our priority activities include:

- Downtown InFocus review and status update with consultants Interface Studio.
- Core Neighborhood Plan next steps, including code enforcement focus, housing rehab focus, and growth plan focus as main priorities
- Onboarding two new staff members to round out the Long Range Planning division
- Housing needs analysis and housing strategy
- Homeless strategy development
- Public Arts initiatives
- Continuity of operations
- Land Development Code initiative

5. Human Rights Commission Transition

On December 27, 2021, the Fargo City Commission approve the renaming of the Human Relations Commission's to be called the Human Rights Commission. It is staffed by Dr. Terry Hogan, the City's Director of Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion. The HRC also approved a new Mission and Vision statement.

Mission: The Fargo Human Relations Commission provides leadership and education in areas of civil rights, to eliminate discrimination against persons because of color, creed, religion, national origin, age, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, disability, or marital status. It encourages adherence to civil rights through education, conciliation, and mediation. It identifies human and civil rights-related concerns of the public and recommends policies to the board of city commissioners that protect and preserve individual rights.

Vision: The city of Fargo strives to be an equitable, inclusive community where all residents feel accepted, respected, and safe. The Fargo Human Relations Commission is a diverse group of individuals that advises the City of Fargo in protecting and preserving human and civil rights and brings a voice to the unheard.

6. Call for Public Art Projects

The City of Fargo's Arts and Culture Commission (ACC) has issued a Call for Public Art Projects. The community is invited to propose a public art project (visual or performance-based, permanent or temporary, free and accessible) to improve the community. The application process closes on March 18, 2022. The full description of the ACC 2022 Call for Public Art Projects, criteria details and the application questions can be found at FargoND.Gov/CallForPublicArtProjects.

7. The Fargo Police Department and The Downtown Community Partnership To Co-Host "Downtown Download"

The Fargo Police Department (FPD) and the Downtown Community Partnership (DCP) co-hosted a "Downtown Download" public meeting on Wednesday, Feb. 23 at 9 a.m. During the meeting, the Fargo Police Department introduced the new Downtown Resource Officers and lead discussions related to the topics of homelessness, downtown parking, food cart concerns, the FPD Downtown Substation and additional plans for 2022. A recording is available at <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=xMHuRYDH42E>.

8. Fargo Public Schools Native American Culture Week

During February 7-11 a.k.a. "Kindness Week", Fargo Public Schools employed Native American Cultural Teachings to infuse the concepts of kindness, problem solving, teamwork, family, and friends to help guide students in how they work through challenges in their lives. During Native American Culture Week, they conducted a unit with fourth graders learning about Dream Catchers and a unit with fifth graders learning about Identity Shields.
