3. Cass Clay Food Partners Resource Review

Ms. Tweet provided a brief overview of the revised Hunger and Food Insecurity snapshot. She referred to Hunger on the Plains 2023, the Great Plains Food Bank quadrennial report that surveyed 518 clients from 68 food pantries across North Dakota and Clay County, Minnesota that noted that 43 of households served included children, 11 percent included seniors, 74 percent had a household member with at least one chronic condition, 40 percent did not have access to a vehicle, and nearly two in five households surveyed had to make choices between paying for food and other essential needs such as utilities, transportation, and healthcare. She concluded by mentioning initiatives to reduce hunger and food insecurity in the region including federal programs, food assistance programs, local organizations, and local initiatives such as farmers markets, community gardens, and others.

4. Implementation of USDA Nutrition Assistance Programs in North Dakota

Linda Schloer and Melissa Anderson from the North Dakota Department of Public Instruction (NDDPI) presented information on USDA child nutrition and food distribution programs in North Dakota. They noted that NDDPI administers three USDA household programs in North Dakota: the Emergency Food Assistance Program (TEFAP), the Food Distribution Program on Indian Reservations (FDPIR), and the Commodity Supplemental Food Program (CSFP). They also explained that NDDPI administers multiple child nutrition programs in North Dakota: the Summer Food Service Program (SFSP), Summer EBT (S-EBT), the Child and Adult Care Food Program (CACFP), and the National School Lunch Program (NSLP) which includes the School Breakfast Program and the Fresh Fruits and Vegetables Program.

5. Meal Repack Program

Zoe Absey of the Great Plains Food Bank and Amber Lockhart of Northern Cass School District informed the Commission about the Cass Clay Hunger Coalition Meal Repack Program.

Ms. Absey explained that the Meal Repack Program started in 2021 and that the goal is to support students and families experiencing food insecurity. She noted that there are currently six participating schools: Moorhead High School, the Moorhead Career Academy, Northern Cass, Carl Ben Middle School, Sheyenne High School, and Barnesville Public Schools.

Ms. Lockhart noted that key stakeholders of the program include nutrition staff to ensure safe preparation and repacking of food, a school pantry coordinator to assist with meal storage and distribution and also to maintain records, and an administrative team to launch and sustain the program. She also noted food label requirements and a review implementation guide to assess available resources, determine distribution processes and location, and determine who will receive meals.

6. Steering Committee Updates

Ms. Draxten provided an informational update to the Commission regarding the steering committee's recent activities.

7. Kudos and Community Recognition

Ms. Draxten recognized Keith Lehman and his support for the Fargo North Open Door program. She explained that Open Door is a hybrid food pantry and clothing room for students in need. She noted that Fargo North Mathematics teacher and Department Chair Keith Lehman has helped raise nearly $10,000 for Open Door over the past four years by running one mile for every $100 raised each fall and winter.

Ms. Draxten also recognized area restaurants and chefs that had been named semifinalists for the James Beard Award. She explained that the James Beard Foundation's Restaurants and Chef Awards recognize exceptional talent and achievement in the culinary arts, hospitality, media, and broader food system, as well as demonstrated commitment to racial and gender equity, community, and sustainability. The 2024 Restaurant and Chef semifinalists were recognized across 22 categories and included:

Re: Cass Clay Food Partners Resource Review

Since March 2015, the Cass Clay Food Partners has developed nearly two dozen resource documents highlighting urban agriculture, food access, sustainability, and other food systems topic areas relevant to the Fargo-Moorhead area. These documents have included blueprints, which look at food systems from a land development code perspective; and issue briefs and snapshots, which provide more of an overview of an issue the community may have seen locally.

In March 2024, the steering committee provided information on the snapshot for Hunger and Food Insecurity. This month, the steering committee will present information from the blueprint on Residential Gardening.

Re: Kudos and Community Recognition

Since May 2022, the Cass Clay Food Commission has highlighted individuals and organizations for their work in the Fargo-Moorhead metropolitan area and the broader community. This includes awards and recognitions as well as state and local initiatives that support food systems and the values of the Commission.

In May 2024, the Steering Committee would like to recognize the following:

1. City of West Fargo Passes Backyard Chicken Ordinance
On April 1, 2024, the West Fargo City Commission voted to pass an ordinance that allows residents to have backyard chickens. Residents are allowed up to six chickens and must obtain a permit. West Fargo joins the cities of Fargo, Moorhead, and portions of Horace in allowing backyard chickens as a permitted or conditional use.
2. Certificate of Appreciation to Commissioner George
The Steering Committee would like to recognize and thank Food Commissioner Mandy George from the City of West Fargo for her contributions to the Cass Clay Food Commission for the past four years. Commissioner George's term with West Fargo will end this summer and she is not seeking another term. Commissioner George was instrumental in bringing the topic of backyard chickens forward to the City Commission and in its passing.
