Planning Commission to Host Presentation by Mark Piehl of the Historical & Cultural Society of Clay County

FARGO, N.D. (December 12, 2018) – The Planning Commission will host a presentation by Mark Piehl as part of its brown bag meeting on Thursday, December 13 at 11:30 a.m., in the Commission Chambers within the old Fargo City Hall at 200 3rd Street North. Piehl is the Senior Archivist at the Historical and Cultural Society of Clay County and has been invited to present on the history of the Mid-America Steel site.

Quorums are expected for the Planning Commission and may occur for the City Commission, Arts and Culture Commission, Parking Commission, Historic Preservation Commission, Community Development Committee and Renaissance Zone Authority.

Members of the general public are invited to attend this presentation. Parking will be available in the two parking lots to the south of the new City Hall, as well as the lot to the north of the Fargo Public Library.
