IDITAREAD: Winter Reading Challenge January 2 – March 3

Brave the winter weather by joining us at the Fargo Public Library for the IDITAREAD: Winter Reading Challenge. This year we're gearing up for the Iditarod Trail Sled Dog Race by running, racing, and reading. Register for the Challenge in Beanstack, pick up a reading log at any Fargo Public Library location, and you are off on a snowy adventure! Log 30 days of reading and win the ultimate prize - a new book! Kids can earn their own 2024 Official Iditarod Magnet by completing activities in the Junior Trailblazer Activity book (available at all Fargo Public Library locations). We'll also have weekly prize drawings - just log your reading in the Beanstack app during the week to be entered to win.

We've also got great events to keep you on track.

- January 27 at 1 p.m. – Iditaread Movie: Togo (PG) Togo tells the true story of a team of dogs who delivered life-saving serum to the citizens of Nome, AK after a diphtheria outbreak in 1925. The Iditarod Trail Sled Dog Race commemorates these historic events. (see page 4)
- March 2 at 1:30 p.m. – The Iditarod: What Does It Take to Run the Last Great Race? Join us for a visit from Jim and Mary Ann Miller of Prairie Bilt Sleds. The Millers have built sleds for mushers for more than 20 years and will let us know what is needed to successfully finish the race. (see page 5)
- April 6 at 1:30 p.m. – Dreaming Big: Dogsled Racing with Eva Robinson. At seventeen, Eva Robinson is already a veteran competitive musher. Listen to her inspiring story and meet one of her dogs! (see page 5)

For a full list of the events and activities this winter/spring, take a look inside. For more information about any of the Fargo Public Library's programs and services, please contact the Children's Services department at 701.241.1495, email: kids@fargolibrary.org, or visit www.fargolibrary.org/kids.

Battle of the Books Tournament

March Madness isn't the only battle going on this spring! Join us for our annual Battle of the Books. Sixteen books will battle, but only one will win! Stop by the Main Library every two weeks beginning Sunday, Feb. 25 and vote to make sure that your favorite advances to the next round. You can also cast your vote online through the Library's website. Correctly predict the winner and you could win a prize! For more information about the Battle of the Books, contact Children's Services at 701.241.1495 or visit www.fargolibrary.org/kids.

February 25 – April 21 at Main Library

Winning book announced Monday, April 22

Don't forget, when the Library is closed, you can still...

- Call our Dial-a-Story phone line and hear a story read by Children's Services Staff. Call 701.298.6927 and select the children's line to hear the story.
- Check out our online resources like: Hoopla, Tumblebooks, and Overdrive Kids' Reading Room for ebooks and eaudiobooks; Creativebug for art tutorials; Mango for language learning; and Nat Geo Kids to explore the natural world. Find these and more by visiting <https://fargond.gov/city-government/departments/library/online-resources#kids> – don't forget to have your library card on hand to access these resources from home.
- Visit one of our outdoor StoryWalks. The Fargo Public Library hosts three StoryWalks; Brunsdale Park (1702 27th Ave. S.), in the Sodbuster Plaza outside the Main Library, and Ed Clapp Elementary (3131 28th Street S.). Each features various interactive stories throughout the year to encourage readers of all ages to read, move, and enjoy the outdoors.

*The StoryWalk® Project was created by Anne Ferguson of Montpelier, VT and developed in collaboration with the Kellogg-Hubbard Library. StoryWalk® is a registered service mark owned by Ms. Ferguson.

All events are FREE.

All materials provided and are available while supplies last.

Groups of 5 or more should contact the Children's Services Department at 701.241.1495 before attending any event.

Registration is required for some events and is noted in the description. To register, or for more information, call 701.241.1495 or visit us at www.fargolibrary.org/kids.

On a Blind Date with a Bat

How would you react if you saw a bat flying overhead? With fear, disgust, or confusion? Bats are mysterious creatures, and from Dracula to the present day, they can seem a bit frightening. If you're curious about bats, join Sam Devick, a North Dakota 4-H Pollinator Habitat Ambassador, for a "blind date" with a bat. You'll find out which animal bats really are, if they're actually blind, and how you can become friends with them. A bat-related activity will follow the presentation. This event is open to all ages, but is geared towards kids in grades K to 5th.

April 20 at 10 a.m. – Carlson Library

Josie Dances with Author Denise Lejimoniere

Join us as we welcome North Dakota Poet Laureate Denise Lejimoniere for a reading and book signing for Josie Dances, which was the children's book selected to represent North Dakota at the 2023 National Book Festival. As an enrolled citizen of the Turtle Mountain Band of Chippewa, Lejimoniere will also include a cultural show and tell. All ages are welcome.

The North Dakota Great Reads from Great Places program for the National Book Festival is sponsored by the Library of Congress and the North Dakota Center for the Book.

April 22 at 6 p.m. – Main Library

Butterfly Garden Adventures Reader's Theater with Playwright Annie Hough

Star in the debut production of local playwright Annie Hough's new play! Hough received a 2023 TAP (The Arts Partnership) Individual Arts Partnership grant, and the reader's theater performance will be produced and videoed as part of the grant. Open to kids in grades 1 to 7. There are opportunities for older kids to perform the speaking roles, and younger kids to play non-speaking roles. Register beginning April 6. If kids are interested in helping to create simple costumes and prop pieces, but don't want to perform, please call 241-1495. Kids will be reading from the script, there is no need to memorize lines. Please note: Parents/legal guardians must sign and turn in a video release form prior to the event.

10:00 AM: Divvy up roles & prop work; read through & rehearse the play or create simple costumes

12:00 PM: Lunch Break (Pizza provided)

1:00: Reader's Theater performance of Butterfly Garden Adventures

April 27 at 10 a.m. – Main Library

Need help finding your next book?

Do you need reading suggestions? Maybe you're a parent trying to find the right reading level or a grandparent looking for gift suggestions, whatever it is, we've got you covered! Just answer a few questions about what you are seeking and we'll do the rest. We'll even put the books on hold for you! After you answer the questions, we'll get to work putting together a list of titles and authors that we think you'll like. Depending on your preference, we can send you a list or put the books on hold for pickup at any Fargo Public Library location. Fill out the What's Next? Reading Recommendations survey online (www.fargolibrary.org/kids) about your reading likes and dislikes. Our trained experts will work through your responses to help you find authors and titles that match your interests. Look for your completed What's Next reading recommendations delivered to you in 3 to 5 days. As always, we value your privacy and will keep your answers strictly confidential.

To register, call 701.241.1495 or go to www.fargolibrary.org.

STORYTIME OPPORTUNITIES

The Iditarod: What Does It Take to Run the Last Great Race?

Mushers and their dog teams have participated in the Iditarod race for the past half century. This grueling race is held each year to commemorate the 1925 Serum Run, when dog sled teams relayed life-saving medicine after an outbreak of diphtheria. What does it take to run the 1,000 mile race through some of the harshest winter conditions? What is packed on a sled to help both dogs and their musher survive? Learn this and more when Jim and Mary Ann Miller of Prairie Bilt Sleds visit on March 2 - start day of the 2024 Iditarod. The Millers have been building sleds for mushers around the country since 1999. Many of them have been used in the Iditarod. They've also visited both the start and finish of the race. A dog sled craft will follow the presentation. This event is open to all ages, but is geared toward kids in grades K-5.

Mar. 2 at 1:30 p.m. – Main Library
