

City Administrator Pat Zavoral said the separation agreement pays Chief Ternes until July 31, 2015. He said he would suggest naming an interim Chief of Police immediately; however, the search for a new Chief of Police could be conducted later, likely in the spring. Job openings for department heads require a national search and take 90 to 120 days, he said, and from a budgetary standpoint it makes sense to implement a start date to coincide with the conclusion of Chief Ternes' pay.

Commissioner Piepkorn moved Captain David Todd be appointed to serve as Interim Chief of Police.
