Policy

Why a policy means good, profitable business for your concession stand

Concession stands are a great opportunity to raise money. Profitable concession stands are strategic about 4 P's: product, price, promotion, and placement. Policies ensure consistent implementation of the 4 P's and are sustainable season to season, year to year.

What should Fast Fuel policies focus on?

- Product
- Price
- Placement
- Promotion

Regardless of who is behind the concession counter, a policy will keep the operation running smoothly while sustaining profits and maintain the healthfulness of products offered.

Policy Language

Policies should be worded specifically enough so healthful options meet set guidelines. Including measurable standards are also a benefit to achieve healthfulness and profitability!

For example: "50% of snack items will be 200 calories or less."

Give me a policy!
With a side of health!

Sample Policy

Product

- Include any requirements of food sold in the concession stand to meet Fast Fuel guidelines, like whole-grain.
- Identify how much of your inventory should be Fast Fuel options.
- >> Example: "Fifty percent of the products provided at [Name] concessions will meet Smart Snack Guidelines."
- More Product info: Fast Fuel Toolkit - page 7

Price

- Be specific yet broad enough for price changes that might occur.
- >> Example: "Fast Fuel snack items will be marked 25% lower than items that do not meet Smart Snack Guidelines."
- More Pricing info: Fast Fuel Toolkit - page 11

Promotion

- Be specific to your concession stand and the promotion material used.
- >> Example: "Color-coded signs will be used to highlight nutritious, more healthful choices."
- >> Example: "Promotional posters should only feature images of Fast Fuel options."
- More Promotion info: Fast Fuel Toolkit - page 14

Placement

- Be creative with your placement of Fast Fuel options to catch the eye of your customers.
- >> Example: "Bottled water should be placed on the top shelves. Sugary beverages should be placed on the bottom shelves."
- >> Example: "Fast Fuel snack options should be placed closest to the cash register in easy to access bowls."
- More Placement info: Fast Fuel Toolkit - page 16
