

Fargo Cass Public Health (FCPH) is required by law to maintain the privacy of protected health information and to provide you with notice of its duties and privacy practices. Fargo Cass Public Health must abide by the terms of the notice currently in effect. Fargo Cass Public Health may change the terms of our notice, at any time. The new notice will be effective for all protected health information that we maintain at that time. Upon your request, we will provide you with any revised Notice of Privacy Practices by mail or hand delivery.

This Notice of Privacy Practices describes how we, our Business Associates, and their subcontractors may use and disclose your protected health information to carry out treatment, payment, or health care operations and for other purposes that are permitted or required by law. It also describes your rights to access and control your protected health information. "Protected Health Information" (PHI) is information about you, including demographic information, that may identify you and that relates to your past, present or future physical or mental health or condition and related health care services.

USES AND DISCLOSURES OF PROTECTED HEALTH INFORMATION The following section describes different ways that we use and disclose medical information. We will not use or disclose your medical information for any purpose not listed below, without your specific authorization. Any specific written authorization you provide may be revoked at any time by writing to us.

This includes any coordination or management of your health care with other agencies that have your permission to have access to your PHI This may include family members and other caregivers who are part of your plan of care.

Payment – Your PHI will be used as needed to obtain payment for your health care services. This may include your insurance company, self-funded or third-party health plan, Medicare, Medicaid, or any other person or entity that may be responsible for paying or processing for payment any portion of your bill for services.

Healthcare Operations – We may use or disclose, as needed, your PHI to support the business activities of FCPH and to comply with regulations affecting this agency's operations. These activities include but are not limited to quality assessment, employee review, licensing accrediting bodies and training activities. We may also call you by name in the waiting room when your health care professional is ready to see you. We may contact you to remind you of appointments or inform you of other health activities we provide. If we use or disclose your PHI for fundraising activities, we will provide you the choice to opt out of those activities. You may also choose to opt back in.

Telehealth – Providers will maintain confidentiality during telehealth session, sessions will not be recorded. The client is responsible for security and confidentiality on their end. A secure encrypted internet connection using SSL technology will be used by FCPH. Client should use a secure internet connection rather than public/free Wi-Fi and wipe history from browser after session completion. The address sent will start with <https://> (TLS) rather than <http://> meaning it is a secure connection between your web browser and a web server. No computer system or information, however, can ever be fully protected from every possible threat or hazard and therefore we cannot warrant the security of any information you transmit to us, and you do so at your own risk.

Required by law – We may use or disclose your PHI to the extent that law requires the use or disclosure. The use or disclosure will be made in compliance with the law and will be limited to the relevant requirements of the law.

Public Health – We may disclose your PHI to a public health authority that is permitted by law to collect or receive the information. The disclosure will be made for the purpose of controlling disease, injury, or disability. The disclosure may be made to a person or company required by the Food and Drug Administration to report adverse events, product defects or problems, to enable product recalls, repairs, or replacements to track products, or to conduct activities required by the Food and Drug Administration. We may also disclose your PHI, if authorized by law, to the person who may have been exposed to a communicable disease or may otherwise be at risk of contracting or spreading the disease or condition.

Abuse and neglect – We may disclose your PHI to a public health authority that is authorized by law to receive reports of child abuse or neglect. We may disclose your PHI if we believe that you have been a victim of abuse, neglect or domestic violence to the government entity or agency authorized to receive such information.

Health oversight – We may disclose PHI to an agency providing health oversight for oversight activities authorized by law, including audits, licensure, inspections, and investigations.

Legal proceedings – We may disclose health information during any judicial or administrative proceeding, in response to an order of a court or administrative tribunal, subpoena discovery request or other lawful process.

Law Enforcement – We may disclose PHI to a law enforcement official concerning the medical information of a suspect, fugitive, material witness, crime victim or missing person, and we may share the medical information of an inmate or other person in lawful custody with a law enforcement official or correctional institution under certain circumstances.

Coroners, Funeral Directors, and Organ Donations – We may disclose PHI to a coroner or medical examiner for identification purposes for determination of death or for the coroner or medical examiner to perform other duties authorized by law. We may disclose information to a funeral director as authorized by law, to permit them to carry out their duties. We may disclose such information in reasonable anticipation of death. PHI may be used and disclosed for cadaver organ, eye, or tissue donation purposes.

Criminal activity - We may disclose your PHI if we believe that the use or disclosure is necessary to prevent or lessen a serious and imminent threat to the health or safety of a person or the public.

Military Activity and National Security – When the appropriate conditions apply, we may use or disclose PHI of individuals who are Armed Forces personnel:

1. For activities deemed necessary by appropriate military command authorities.
2. For determination by the Department of Veterans Affairs of your eligibility for benefits. To foreign military authority if you are a member of that foreign military service.
3. We may also disclose your PHI to authorized federal officials for conducting national security and intelligence activities, including for the provision of protective services to the President or other legally authorized.

Workers Compensation - Your PHI may be disclosed as authorized to comply with workers compensation laws and other similar programs.

Research – We may disclose your PHI to researchers when their research has been approved by an institutional review board that has reviewed the research proposal and established protocols to ensure the privacy of your PHI.

Opportunity to agree to or prohibit – This agency is permitted to use or disclose information about you without consent or authorization provided you are informed in advance and given the opportunity to agree to or prohibit the disclosure in the following circumstances. If you are not present or able to agree or object to the use or disclosure, then your health care provider may, using professional judgment, determine whether the disclosure is in your best interest.

- To a family member, relative, friend, or other identified person, the information relevant to such person's involvement in your care or payment for care.
- Disaster relief – we may disclose medical information about you to an entity assisting in disaster relief.

Uses and Disclosures of Protected Health Information Based on Your Written Authorization – Other uses and disclosures of your PHI will be made only with your written authorization, unless otherwise permitted or required by law as described below. You may revoke this authorization, at any time, in writing except in limited situations. Without your authorization, we are prohibited to use or disclose your PHI for marketing purposes. We may not sell your PHI without your authorization. We may not use or disclose most psychotherapy notes contained in your PHI. We will not use or disclose any of your PHI that contains genetic information that will be used for underwriting purposes. You may revoke the authorization at any time in writing, except to the extent that the agency has acted in reliance on the use or disclosure indicated in the authorization.

YOUR RIGHTS AND HOW TO EXERCISE THEM The following are statements of your rights with respect to your PHI.

You have the right to access, to inspect and copy your Protected Health Information (fees may apply). Upon written request, you have the right to inspect or copy your PHI whether in paper or electronic format. This request must be in writing and include records in the "Designated Record Set". The Designated Record Set consists of your medical and billing file. This information may be given to you in summary form. According to N.D. CENT. CODE SECTION 23-12-14, upon request for medical records with the signed authorization of the patient, a health care provider shall provide medical records at a charge of no more than:

- $20 for the first 25 pages
- $.75 per page after 25
- This charge includes any administration fee, retrieval fee, and postage expense.

You have the right to request a restriction of your Protected Health Information. You may ask us not to use or disclose any part of your PHI for the purposes of treatment, payment, or healthcare operations. You may request that any part of your information not be disclosed to family members or friends who may be involved in your care or for notification purposes. The request must state the specific restriction requested. FCPH is not required to agree to the restriction, except if you request that FCPH not disclose PHI to your health plan with respect to healthcare for which you have paid in full, out of pocket, at the time of service. You may request a restriction by completing the Request of Restriction of Protected Health Information. This form can be obtained from FCPH.

You have the right to request to receive confidential communication from us by alternative means or at alternative location. Fargo Cass Public Health will accommodate reasonable requests. You may request this by completing the Client Communication Informed Consent form or Family Planning Income Worksheet. These forms can be obtained from Fargo Cass Public Health.

You have the right to request an amendment to your Protected Health Information. If you believe that medical information is incorrect or incomplete, you may request an amendment. You may ask for an amendment to information about you in a set for as long as we maintain this information. We may deny your request. If we deny your request, we will provide you a written explanation. If we deny the request, you may respond with a statement of disagreement that will be added to the information you wanted changed. To request an amendment, you need to complete a Request for Amendment of Protected Health Information form. This form can be obtained from Fargo Cass Public Health.

You have the right to receive an "Accounting of Certain Disclosures" we have made of your protected health information. This right applies to disclosures for purposes other than treatment, payment, or healthcare operations. It excludes disclosures we may have made to you, to family members, or friends involved in your care or for notification purposes. It does not include uses and disclosures for which you gave us written authorization. You may request this accounting in writing for disclosures made after 4/14/2003.

You have the right to obtain a paper copy of this notice from us, even if you have agreed to accept this notice electronically. You may obtain a copy of this notice at our website, FargoCassPublicHealth.com.

You have a right to receive a notice of a breach. We will notify you if your PHI has been breached.

MINIMUM NECESSARY RULE Our staff will not use or access your PHI unless it is needed to do their jobs. All Public Health staff are trained in HIPAA Privacy and Security rules and sign a Confidentiality Agreement with regards to keep your PHI private. Also, we disclose to outside entities only as much of your PHI as needed to accomplish the recipient's lawful purposes.

INCIDENTAL DISCLOSURE RULE We will take reasonable administrative, technical and security safeguards to ensure the privacy of your PHI when we use or disclose it. If there is a breach in protecting your PHI, we will follow Federal Guidelines to HIPAA Omnibus Rule Standards to first evaluate the breach situation using the Omnibus Rule, 4-Factor Formula for Breach Assessment. Then we will document the situation, retain copies of the situation on file, and report all breaches (other than low probability, as prescribed by the Omnibus Rule) to the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services at: <http://www.hhs.gov/ocr/privacy/hipaa/administrative/breachnotificationrule/brinstruction.html>.

CHANGES TO PRIVACY POLICY We reserve the right to change our privacy practices at any time as authorized by law. The changes will be considered immediate and will apply to all PHI we create or receive in the future. If we make changes, we will post the changed Notice on our website and in our office. Upon request, you will be given a copy of our current Notice.

FAXING, EMAILING, AND TEXTING RULES You may request us to fax your PHI. Providing us with the fax contact information, guarantees that you have sole access to the fax. We are not responsible for PHI viewed by others if it is a shared fax. We will include a cover sheet to the message. Email and text messages are not considered a safe method of transmission for PHI, and therefore there is risk of unlawful disclosure. If you request to receive communication via e-mail or text, formal written or verbal consent will be required. As a rule, FCPH will send PHI only by encrypted email.

MARKETING RULES Marketing is defined as communication about a product or service that encourages recipients to purchase or use the product or service. The HIPAA Privacy Rule expressly requires an authorization for uses or disclosures of PHI for all marketing communications, except in two circumstances:

1. When the communication occurs in a face-to-face encounter between the covered entity and the individual; or
2. The communication involves a promotional gift of nominal value.

If marketing communications other than the circumstance listed above are utilized, we will obtain your authorization first via the Fargo Cass Public Health Release of Information Form.

FUNDRAISING RULES We generally do not participate in fundraising efforts using our patient information. If the Department were to participate in fundraising activity, you will be provided with an opportunity to opt-out of participating in fundraising efforts.

AUTHORIZATIONS RELATED TO RESEARCH We may seek authorizations from you for the use of your PHI for future research. However, we would make clear the purpose of the research.

COMPLAINTS You may complain to Fargo Cass Public Health and the Secretary of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services if you believe that your privacy rights have been violated. There will be no retaliation against you for filing a complaint. The complaint should be filed in writing and with FCPH and should state the specific incident(s) in terms of subject, date, and other relevant matters. A complaint to the Secretary must comply with the standards set out in 45 CFR 160.306.

For further information regarding filing a complaint with the Fargo Cass Public Health, contact: FCPH Privacy Officer at 701.241.1360. This notice is effective beginning April 14, 2003 and reviewed yearly.
