One Book, One Community 2021 Everything You Wanted to Know About Indians but Were Afraid to Ask by Anton Treuer

This year, the 2021 One Book, One Community (OBOC) reading project's title is Everything You Wanted to Know About Indians but Were Afraid to Ask by Anton Treuer.

An essential and engaging read for Native and non-Native readers, Treuer's book answers questions with solid information, humor, and compassion while building a foundation for true understanding and positive action.

Copies of the book are available for check-out in several formats (physical and digital) at each of the participating libraries; a Young Reader's Edition and book club kits are also available.

New this year is the One Book, One Community Reading Challenge. By reading and completing activities related to this year's book in Beanstack, participants will earn entries into a drawing for prizes that support Native and Indigenous businesses. The reading challenge is free and runs from Aug. 1, through Oct. 31. To get started, visit fargolibrary.beanstack.org/reader365.

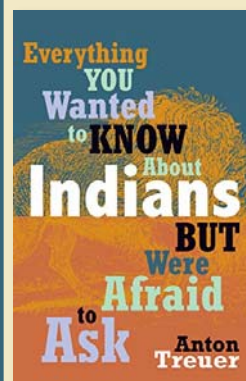

This year's OBOC program also features events that include an author visit, films, book discussions, and historical exhibits as part of the series. Visit any Fargo Public Library location or go to www.1book1community.org for a schedule of events and related resources.

Support for this year's project is provided by: the Minnesota Arts and Cultural Heritage Fund through Lake Agassiz Regional Library (major sponsor), Friends of the Fargo Public Library, Concordia College Cultural Events, Friends of the West Fargo Public Library, Friends of the Moorhead Library, and Moorhead Community Education.

Events taking place at the Fargo Public Library include:
