

FEATURED SERVICE

TECH HELP SESSIONS

Our librarians can help you with your technology questions at our weekly Tech Help sessions. Call the Adult Services Desks at 701.241.1492 or 701.476.5980 to reserve a 30-minute appointment, or drop in at one of the weekly sessions – drop-ins will be accommodated based on staff availability. Librarians are not able to fix devices; however, they are able to assist patrons in learning how to use them. Remember to bring your device with you to the Tech Help session.

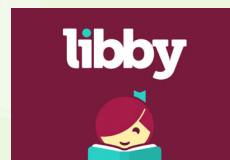

Tuesdays | Dr. James Carlson Library | 11 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Wednesdays | Main Library | 3 to 5 p.m.

LIBBY (LIBRARY2GO)

This online resource offers a wide selection of titles including bestsellers, audiobooks, and movies, and is available on the widest range of devices. Visit <https://libbyapp.com/library/ndlibrary2go> or <https://ndlibrary2go.overdrive.com>, or ask a librarian for help getting started with any of these or other digital items in the collection.

NOTARY PUBLIC SERVICES

The library offers Notary Public services at no charge to patrons by authorized library staff. Patrons are encouraged to call the Main Library Adult Services Desk at 701.241.1492 to confirm that a Notary Public is available before they visit, or to make an appointment. Availability of a Notary Public is dependent on staff availability and is not guaranteed.

LIBRARY'S DIAL-A-STORY

You can listen to a short story, poem, or Shakespearean monologue anytime by calling the library's Dial-a-Story line at 701.298.6927. There's a Dial-a-Story option for kids, too. When you call the Dial-a-Story phone line, simply choose the children's option. New recordings are available every Monday. Selections are recorded by library staff and are up to 10 minutes in length. Dial-A-Story recordings can be accessed by any phone.

KEEP ME POSTED KITS

Keep connected with friends and family with the library's Keep Me Posted Kits! The library has partnered with the Downtown Neighborhood Association with kits that include local postcards and supplies for sending letters to your loved ones. Kits are available at all three library locations and the Downtown Community Engagement Center for in-house use only. Return the postcards and letters to the Main Library's Checkout Desk to be posted for free. Contact Nicole at 701.241.1472 for details.

LIBRARY'S YEAR-LONG READING CHALLENGE

The Fargo Public Library's year-long reading challenge for adults and older teens continues through Dec. 31. All interested readers are welcome to register in Beanstack at fargolibrary.beanstack.org to get started on this year-long challenge. Throughout the year, complete any of the 12 reading prompts by logging the titles you read. Participants who complete 10 of the 12 prompts will be entered to win a grand prize drawing at the end of the year. This challenge is designed for adult and older teen readers who are looking to add some fun, or discover a new favorite, or who want a little extra motivation for reading during the year.

VOLUNTEER AT THE FARGO PUBLIC LIBRARY

Want to lend a helping hand at the Fargo Public Library? We are looking for Outreach volunteers. The volunteer application form is available at fargolibrary.org/outreach, or ask at any Checkout Desk. For more information, contact Pam Strait at 701.241.8111 or email pstrait@fargolibrary.org.

Growing to Meet the Future

FARGO PUBLIC LIBRARY ENDOWMENT FUND

The Fargo Public Library serves as a vital center of knowledge and is an integral part of our vibrant community. A social and intellectual gathering place for everyone, the Fargo Public Library provides lifelong learning opportunities and library resources for all. Gifts to the library's endowment fund will continue to enhance and enrich library programs and library experiences for future generations.

If you are interested in giving to the library's endowment fund, or if you need additional information regarding the library's endowment fund, please contact Library Director Tim Dirks at 701.241.1493 or email tdirks@fargolibrary.org.

Donations to the Fargo Public Library Endowment Fund are eligible for the North Dakota Charitable Income Tax Credit. Consult your tax advisor for more information, or call the FM Area Foundation at 701.234.0756.

ADVENTURE BEGINS AT YOUR LIBRARY THIS SUMMER!

All Ages Reading Challenge Runs June 3 – August 17

Summer is finally here and adventure awaits you at the Fargo Public Library. This summer's reading challenge promises lots of great books, events, and activities for all ages – kids, teens, and adults. The free program runs from Monday, June 3, through Saturday, Aug. 17, and readers of all ages can participate by reading (or listening to) books, attending events, and completing challenges to earn prizes.

The library's summer reading program will once again use Beanstack, an online service designed for readers of all ages to log the days they spend reading and the challenges they complete, to earn free prizes for their efforts. To get started and participate in the library's summer reading incentive program, register at fargolibrary.beanstack.org. Online registration with Beanstack is accessible via web browser, or Apple/Android apps. If you prefer a printed reading log, those are also available at any FPL location starting June 3.

Reading logs and activity challenges are due on or before Saturday, Aug. 17, to be eligible for prizes and prize drawings.

For a list of related events, check out those highlighted in this newsletter or visit our online calendar at fargolibrary.org.

NAVY WEEK EVENTS AT YOUR LIBRARY

The Fargo Public Library is excited to once again host events during Fargo's Navy Week. Navy Weeks are the service's signature outreach program, designed to allow the citizens of Fargo to learn about the Navy, its people, and its importance to national security and prosperity. This will be the third time the Fargo Public Library has hosted Navy Week events. No registration is required and all Navy Week events are free & open to the public.

■ Navy Week Events: Educational Displays

Learn more about the important work and history of the Navy when Sailors visit the library. Personnel from the Navy History and Heritage Command will be on hand to share about the deep ties between ND and the Navy; Sailors from the USS Constitution will talk about the oldest commissioned ship in the Navy, where they currently still serve; and personnel from the US Naval Meteorology and Oceanography Command will inform visitors of the importance of atmospheric and oceanographic science and the overall value of STEM education to the Navy. Educational displays will be happening on the following dates and library locations:

Wednesday, July 24 | Dr. James Carlson Library | 11 a.m.

Thursday, July 25 | Main Library | 10 a.m.

■ Navy Week Events: Navy Band Great Lakes Brass Quintet

BELOW THE PLAINS FOR TEENS AND ADULTS

Tom Askjem digs history – literally! The self-taught citizen archeologist makes his living digging for historical treasure on sites where outhouses (which were also used as garbage pits) and homesteads used to sit. There he unearths history and uncovers stories from items that might otherwise be lost forever. Askjem will highlight two digs in spots from the Wild West era – Fort Pembina, ND, and Tackett Station, a former stagecoach stop in South Dakota. He'll share some of his finds and explain how he researches and locates his targets. He'll also explain what led to the unique occupation that has taken him across the Midwest, produced two books, and is subject of the YouTube channel "Below the Plains." This event is most appropriate for teens and adults. Contact Cindy M. at 701.241.1495 for more information.

Monday, July 22 | Main Library | 6 p.m.

CHESS CLUB

All area kids, teens, and adults are invited to be part of the library's Chess Club. Whether you are an expert or new to the game, chess players of all ages and abilities are welcome. Sessions are held weekly, and no registration is required. Adults must accompany children under 10 years old. For details, contact the Main Library Information Desk at 701.241.1492.

Tuesdays | Main Library | 5 to 7:30 p.m.

BEGINNER YOGA FOR ADULTS

This is a class for those who haven't tried yoga before or who want a refresher. Along with gentle stretching, this class will teach breathing exercises to provide calmness. Bring a yoga mat if you have one, or a large towel, and wear comfortable clothing that is easy to move in. This program is recommended for adults. For details, email Lori at lwest@fargolibrary.org.

Thursdays | Dr. James Carlson Library | 6 p.m.
