LIBRARY'S 7TH ANNUAL NORTHERN NARRATIVES WRITING PROJECT STARTS FEBRUARY 1

Calling all local and regional writers! The Fargo Public Library is seeking submissions for our seventh annual Northern Narratives, a writing project that aims to inspire regional writers and serve as a community heirloom. We are accepting submissions Feb. 1 through March 31, 2023 in three categories: fiction, nonfiction, and poetry. The program is open to adults and teens 13 years and older. Please see all rules and information on the library's website (beginning January 16). For any questions not answered on the website, please email NorthernNarratives@fargolibrary.org or call Andy at 701.241.1412.

2023 Submission Categories:

Fiction: 1,000 – 6,000 words

Nonfiction: 1,000 – 6,000 words

Poetry: 1,000 words or less per poem

This project is generously supported by the Friends of the Fargo Public Library.

COMING IN APRIL: FPL'S FOURTH ANNUAL NORTHERN FOCUS PHOTOGRAPHY PROJECT

The library is hosting the fourth annual Northern Focus photography project this spring. We are asking for up-and-coming or recreational photographers from the region to send us their best work to grace our downtown location in a photo exhibit. One lucky artist will get their photograph on the front cover of Northern Narratives 2023. We are accepting submissions from April 3 through May 31, 2023. The program is open to adults and teens, 13 years and older. Rules and information will be available soon; stay tuned for further details. Contact Nicole at 701.476.5974 or email nhofer@fargolibrary.org for further information.
