Note: Many of the indoor walking places mentioned in this brochure have seasonal hours and schedule around special events. Hours and changes are usually posted on websites or social media pages. If you are going to a facility for the first time it may be helpful to call first to verify the hours. Some local schools offer indoor walking to the public; contact your neighborhood school for available hours.

5 Ways to Get Your Steps in Every Day!

- 1) Park near the back of parking lots or another block away from your destination and walk.
- 2) Take the stairs instead of the elevator.
- 3) Pace the floor while talking on the phone.
- 4) Try walking with a pedometer or a Fitbit to track your steps. (About 2,000 steps equal one mile)
- 5) Listening to music can help keep your pace.

Indoor Walking Locations in the Fargo-Moorhead Area

Walking outdoors can be difficult and dangerous when the temperature drops. Walking indoors is a great way to stay active!
