Library's Winter Writing Contest Returns

Get your cat off your keyboard and crack your knuckles! The Fargo Public Library is seeking submissions for Northern Narratives, our winter writing project for adults and teens. This project aims to inspire local writers and to serve as a community heirloom. Selected submissions will be included in our North Dakota Collection.

Submissions will be accepted Jan. 8 – March 4, 2018. Material selected for publication will be announced and printed in late spring. All submissions must be original, unpublished, proofread, and edited works. The selection committee reserves the right to withhold publication at their discretion.

Chosen selections shall be subject to “first rights” copyright. Any future publication, unrelated to the Fargo Public Library, shall require appropriate attribution. The program is open to adults and teens 13 years or older.

Please see all rules and guidelines on the library's website, www.fargolibrary.org, available December 15.

We will accept the following submission types:

Fiction Short Stories: 2,000 – 6,000 words

Essays: 1,000 – 2,000 words

Poems: less than 750 words

Need some inspiration? The library can help you with that. Check the Fargo Public Library's catalog for these and other resources and get writing.

Winter Read-A-Thon Starts January 8

Put an end to those winter blues and warm up with some good books during the library's annual Winter Read-A-Thon reading program for kids, teens, and adults. With events and reading opportunities for readers of all ages, the winter reading program can add a little excitement, adventure and mystery to dreary winter days; plus it also provides opportunities to win prizes for reading books.

To participate, stop by any Fargo Public Library location beginning Tuesday, Jan. 8, or visit the library's website for details. Book logs are also available online and can be printed at home. All readers are encouraged to read to earn chances to enter prize drawings. Book logs are due on or before Sunday, March 4, to be eligible for prizes and prize drawings. Prize drawings will be held in mid-March. For further details about the library's Winter Read-A-Thon, visit www.fargolibrary.org.

Northern Narratives Open Writing Sessions

Calling all writers! This winter the library will be hosting two open writing sessions for area authors. No matter what draft you're on, drop in at anytime during the session to get help with writing, editing, and formatting. For those interested in submitting to the second annual Northern Narratives journal published by the library, assistance will be available for scheduling and guidelines. Whether you prefer laptops or pens, please bring all the tools you require. No pre-registration is required. Refreshments will be provided.

Tuesday, Jan. 23 – Main Library from 5:30-8:30 p.m.

Saturday, Feb. 17 – Dr. James Carlson Library, from 1-4 p.m.

Fargo Public Library events are free & open to the public.

BEING AT HOME IN THE WORLD: AUTHOR VISIT WITH AUTHOR LAETITIA MIZERO HELLERUD

Join us for a book reading and discussion with local author Laetitia Mizero Hellerud as she shares her book, Being at Home in the World. Change and adaptation have become a way of life for Laetitia, a four-time refugee. Having to adapt to this way of thinking since childhood, she learned to rely on her own decisions and, at the same time, accept the love and help of others to survive. In Being at Home in the World, Laetitia shares what she has learned about adaptation and finding your home in the midst of chaos and struggle. Books will be available for purchase. Contact Lori West at 701-476-5977 or at lwest@fargolibrary.org for details.

Sunday, Jan. 14 – Main Library at 2 p.m.

AUTHOR OF NORTH DAKOTA BEER: A HEADY HISTORY TO VISIT JAN. 25

Join us for an evening with author Alicia Underlee Nelson as she recounts North Dakota's journey from a dry state to a booming craft beer hub. Underlee Nelson is a freelance writer and photographer who covers craft beer, travel, art, entertainment, Midwestern history, and North Dakota news for Thomson Reuters, Delta Sky Magazine, AAA Living Magazine, Matador Network, and numerous other publications. North Dakota Beer: A Heady History is Underlee Nelson's first book and was published in 2017. Books will be available for purchase. Contact Melisa at mduncan@fargolibrary.org or call 701-241-1492 for details.

Thursday, Jan. 25 – Main Library at 7 p.m.

HOLIDAY HOURS

In December, the library will be closed Sunday, Dec. 24, and Monday, Dec. 25, for the Christmas holiday. The library will also be closed Monday, Jan. 1, for the New Year's holiday. Also in January, all Fargo Public Library locations will be closed Monday, Jan. 15, in observance of Martin Luther King Day. In February, all Fargo Public Library locations will be closed Monday, Feb. 19, in observance of Presidents Day.

Programs for Families...

(More events are listed at www.fargolibrary.org)

NEW PROGRAM FOR YOUNGSTERS: 1,000 BOOKS BEFORE KINDERGARTEN

The Fargo Public Library is excited to announce the addition of the 1,000 Books Before Kindergarten initiative to its growing body of services for young children and their parents and caregivers. Designed to encourage reading and sharing stories, the 1,000 Books Before Kindergarten program highlights the benefits of reading to babies, toddlers, and preschoolers. Children who have been read to from a young age begin school with the tools they need for school and reading success. It is our goal to help prepare all children in our community to become life-long readers.

Participation in the 1,000 Books Before Kindergarten program is easy. Read a book, any book, to your child, with the goal of reading 1,000 of them before kindergarten. Stop by any Fargo Public Library location beginning Jan. 22 to get started. We are kicking off new program with a couple of parties! Join us Thursday, Jan. 25 at 10 a.m. at the Main Library, or Saturday, Jan. 27, at 10 a.m. at the Dr. James Carlson Library. These events are open to all ages, but are most appropriate for children ages 5 and younger. We'll have read-aloud activities, crafts, snacks, and maybe a special guest or two! Sign up at one of the Kick Off Parties and receive a free book bag (while supplies last).

For more information about the 1,000 Books Before Kindergarten initiative, contact the Children's Services Dept. at 701-241-1495 or visit www.fargolibrary.org/kids.

LIBRARY VOLUNTEERS NEEDED — BE A LIBRARY HERO

All it takes to be a library hero is a few hours two days a month. That's it. You can be a hero by taking the library out to people who love to read but can't get to the library themselves. Through the Fargo Public Library's Outreach program, readers at local senior centers, nursing homes, and senior apartments get books, movies, music, and information about the world. And you get to be a hero. No cape necessary. To get your hero on, contact Volunteer Coordinator Pam Strait at pstrait@fargolibrary.org or call 701-241-8111.

Growing to Meet the Future

FARGO PUBLIC LIBRARY ENDOWMENT FUND

The Fargo Public Library serves as a vital center of knowledge and is an integral part of our vibrant community. A social and intellectual gathering place for everyone, the Fargo Public Library provides lifelong learning opportunities and library resources for all. Gifts to the library's endowment fund will continue to enhance and enrich library programs and library experiences for future generations.

If you are interested in giving to the library's endowment fund, or if you need additional information regarding the library's endowment fund, please contact Library Director Tim Dirks at 701-241-1493 or email tdirks@fargolibrary.org.

Donations to the Fargo Public Library Endowment Fund are eligible for the North Dakota Charitable Income Tax Credit. Through the North Dakota Charitable Income Tax Credit, you can claim a credit of 40% on a donation to a qualified North Dakota charitable organization. Consult your tax advisor for more information, or call the FM Area Foundation at 701-234-0756.

PARKING @ YOUR LIBRARY

Wondering where to park at the downtown Main Library this winter? Parking is available the library's west parking lot along 4th Street North. Parking is also available in the Civic Center Quad parking lot located north of the Main Library between the Civic Center and the library. More parking can be found in the Civic Center/Library parking lot located east of the building along 3rd Street North. Library patrons park for free when using these lots each day. These spots have a 3-hour time limit in order to accommodate as many library patrons as possible each day. Handicapped parking spaces are available in all three parking lots.
