September Is Library Card Sign-Up Month

Celebrate Library Card Sign-Up Month with New Card Designs!

Annie Ondracek

Ryan LeClair

Patty Fresonke-Twigg

The start of a new school year always brings exciting adventures. Begin YOUR library adventure with a new library card design! Whether or not you already have a card, choose one of our new card designs created and voted on by members of the FM community. Stop by any Public Service Desk to find out how. Your library card is your ticket to all that the Fargo Public Library has to offer including books, magazines, ebooks, audiobooks, and more!

Library cards are just the beginning. Check out this issue of the Children's Chapter to discover events, activities, and other services of the Fargo Public Library. This fall sees the return of weekly storytime and Crafternoons as well as the Going Places Book Club and Kindergarten Success storytime. Even when the library is closed, there is so much to experience! Try our children's Dial-a-Story line or visit the outdoor StoryWalks®. We're planning a great season here at the Library, so take a look inside and join us today.

For more information about any of the Fargo Public Library's programs and services, please contact the Children's Services department at 701.241.1495, email kids@fargolibrary.org, or visit www.fargolibrary.org/kids.

To register, call 701.241.1495 or go to www.fargolibrary.org.

One Book, One Community: Kid's Edition

In collaboration with the One Book, One Community project, the Fargo Public Library will be giving out copies of Louise Erdrich's historical Birchbark fiction series. Stop by any Fargo Public Library location beginning Sept. 15 to pick up a copy. Limit 2 books per child. The Birchbark series is most appropriate for ages 8 to 12. (Available while supplies last)

If you liked Little House on the Prairie, then you are going to love the story of Omakayas, a seven-year-old Native American girl of the Ojibwa tribe. Sequels follow Omakayas and her family as they are forced to move from Lake Superior to the Great Plains.

13th Annual Design a Bookmark Contest

The Fargo Public Library is celebrating creativity with the 13th Annual Design a Bookmark Contest. Stop by the library starting September 1 and pick up an entry form. Fill the space with your most brilliant creation and return it to any library location before close on September 30. The top designs (as voted on by library staff) will be made into full-color bookmarks that will be printed and distributed throughout the following year at library locations and events. The contest is open to children 12 and under.

September 1 through 30

All Fargo Public Library Locations

Winners announced on October 10

All events are FREE. Materials are available while supplies last.

Groups of 5 or more should contact the Children's Services Department at 701.241.1495 before attending any event.

Registration is required for some events and is noted in the description. To register, or for more information, call 701.241.1495 or visit us at www.fargolibrary.org/kids.

Mary Poppins Sing-Along

Wind's in the east, mist coming in. . . like somethin' is brewin' and 'bout to begin. What could it be? Well, it's a Mary Poppins Sing-Along of course! Stop by the library and step in time to watch the classic movie Mary Poppins (PG). We'll do crafts and tuck in for some tea and treats while we sing along with Mary Poppins and Bert the Chimney Sweep. We hope you'll be saying supercali-fragilisticexpialidocious by the time we're through. This should be an afternoon that is practically perfect in every way! All ages are welcome.

Dec. 29 at 2 p.m. – Main Library

LEGO Mania Design Contest

Show off your creativity at our annual LEGO Mania Design Contest! Kids age 12 and under are invited to participate. Build an original creation at home, then bring it to the Main Library between 2 and 3 p.m. Winning creations will be announced at 3:45 p.m. Games and other activities will take place in the Children's Area to pass the time while we await the judges' decisions. Pre-registration is required and can be completed by calling 701.241.1495. Before you begin to build, please check out the rules and guidelines on the website. Good luck!

Dec. 30: 2 to 4 p.m. – Main Library

Don't forget, even when the Library is closed, you can still. . .

- Call our Dial-a-Story phone line and hear a story read by Children's Services Staff. The story changes every Monday, so make it a regular event! Call 701.298.6927 and select the children's line to hear the story.
- Submit a request for personalized reading recommendations using our What's Next? Reader's Service. Use the online form located at www.surveymonkey.com/r/fplwhatsnext and librarians will start compiling a list of books based on your specific interests and reading level. We'll even put them on hold and send the books to your chosen Fargo Public Library location.
- Check out ebooks and eaudiobooks from the Overdrive Kids' Reading Room. Visit us at ndlibrary2go.overdrive.com/library/kids/ or use the Libby app and start reading or listening right away.
- Visit one of our outdoor StoryWalks®. The Fargo Public Library hosts two StoryWalks®, one in Brunsdale Park (1702 27th Ave. S.) and the other in the Sodbuster Plaza outside the Main Library. Each features various interactive stories throughout the year to encourage readers of all ages to read, move, and enjoy the outdoors. This fall the Brunsdale StoryWalk® will feature The Leaf Thief by Alice Hemming, and the Sodbuster Plaza StoryWalk® will present Acorn Was a Little Wild by Jen Arena.*

*The StoryWalk® Project was created by Anne Ferguson of Montpelier, VT and developed in collaboration with the Kellogg-Hubbard Library. StoryWalk® is a registered service mark owned by Ms. Ferguson.

To register, call 701.241.1495 or go to www.fargolibrary.org.
